New Member fees and application information

HOW TO APPLY TO BE A MEMBER OF PASC

The Port Adelaide Sailing Cub welcomes everyone. There are 2 primary membership categories:

Senior – needed if you have a boat at the club
Associate – for yacht racing crew members and others wanting social membership

In addition to these 2 primary categories, variations are available to support a family membership (additional fee to senior membership) or people wishing to be part of the Sailability program (discounted Associate membership).

All membership is via application and approval by the Management Committee. You must complete the application form and send it to our Secretary at secretary@pasc.com.au with a head and shoulders photo of yourself.

You will be asked to provide a recent photo of yourself and a short story on why you wish to join our club and what you can bring to our club community. Applications can only be considered once the application fee is paid.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

See the current schedule of fees and charges. As a guide you will be required to pay the following:

Upon application

The application fee. (for a Senior member it is $615)
(there are no application fees for associate membership)

After acceptance (this is approx 3-4 weeks after you submit your application)

The current financial year's membership fee and other member charges for keys etc
(Note if you are accepted as a member after 1 January the current Financial year's membership fee is discounted by 50%)

DO YOU HAVE A BOAT?

What does it cost to leave your boat at the Club?
The attached schedule of fees also outlines the fees for berths both in the water and on the hard stand. Please note you need to be accepted as a Senior Member before you can apply for a berth.

Note: Because of timing issues between application and acceptance it is sometimes possible for the Management Committee to 'reserve' a vacant berth until the process is completed, subject to availability.

What are the costs?

Upon application for a berth

Berth (in marina or on the Hard Stand): Payment of a berth application fee which is $1300.00 or Dry Berth $145.00

Upon allocation is

The payment of the annual berth fee and maintenance fee
(Note the berth and maintenance fee can be paid Annually, quarterly or monthly by direct credit) Wet Berth is $2515.00 annually or $628.75 Quarterly for10m Berth and
$3390.00 pa or $847.50 quarterly for a 12m Berth depending on which berth you are allocated

Example of Costs:

Example 1 (Costs as at 1 July 2027)

I wish to be a senior member and will be applying for an 8 metre wet berth, what will it cost me?

Upon application, you will need to pay the membership application fee of $615.
Once accepted you will need to pay the Financial year's membership fee $685 (or 50% discount after 1 January) plus charges for access key fob $50.

Once accepted as a Senior member you may then apply for a berth. These are subject to availability.

Upon application for an 8 metre wet berth you are required to pay the berth application fee of $1300. (This is refunded if a berth cannot be allocated)

Upon allocation of a berth, you will be required to pay the annual berth fee of $1880 plus the Maintenance area fee $215. This can be paid annually, quarterly or monthly by direct credit.

Total cost for your first year is $4695, there after $2780 per annum

Example 2 (Costs as at 1 July 2027)

I wish to crew on a racing yacht and be part of the Club's social activities. I will be an associate member, what will it cost me?

Upon application, there are no fees to be paid. Just submit the application form.
Once accepted you will need to pay the Financial year's membership fee $205 (or 50% discount after 1 January plus charges for access keys etc.
